

The Elements of Expressive Conducting

Choral Excerpts Supplement

Contents

Foreword

Introduction

Chapter 14: Beat Patterns as an Expressive Element

William Billings – Chester

Samuel Coleridge-Taylor – O Ye That Love the Lord

Traditional – Coventry Carol

Traditional – Early One Morning

Traditional – My Country 'tis of Thee

Chapter 15: Shaping Beat Patterns to Musical Expectation

Samuel Coleridge-Taylor – Summer is Gone

Josquin des Près – Mille Regretz

Orlando di Lasso – Matona mi acara

Johanna Kinkel – Ritters Abschied

W. A. Mozart – Ave Verum Corpus

Chapter 16: Expressive Tools for Shaping Sound

Johannes Brahms – “Wie lieblich sind deine Wohnungen” from Ein deutsches Requiem

José Mauricio Nunes Garcia – Ave Maris Stella

Gustav Holst – Swansea Town

Henry Purcell – I Will Give Thanks Unto Thee

Spiritual – My Lord, What a Morning

Chapter 17: Expression Through Extended Meters

Percy Grainger – Horkstow Grange

Gustav Holst – “Battle Hymn” from Rig Veda

Gustav Holst – “Funeral Hymn” from Rig Veda

Joseph Gabriel Rheinberger – Stabat mater

Franz Schubert – “Agnus Dei” from Deutsche Messe

Chapter 18: Subdividing Various Meters

Gustav Holst – Lully My Liking

Herbert Howells – Here is the Little Door

W. A. Mozart – “Agnus Dei” from Mass, K. 192

Chapter 19: Subdividing in Flow: Shaping Mixed Meters to Musical Expectation

Samuel Coleridge-Taylor – The Lee Shore
Herbert Howells – A Spotless Rose
Claude Le Jeune – Reveye venir du Printans
W. A. Mozart – “Dona nobis pacem” from Mass, K. 192
Traditional – A Lua Girou
Peter Warlock – As Dew in Aprylle

Chapter 20: Preparations and Syncopations

Juana Inés de la Cruz – Madre, le de los primores
Franz Joseph Haydn – “Awake the Harp” from The Creation
Florence Ashton Marshall – To Sea! The Calm is O’er
Henry Purcell – In These Delightful, Pleasant Groves
Clara Schumann – Gondoliera
Antonio Vivaldi – “Fecit Potentiam” from Magnificat
Charles Villiers Stanford – The Blue Bird

Chapter 21: Preparing Compelling Cues

Raphaella Aleotti – Miserere mei, Deus
Nathaniel Dett – Listen to the Lambs
Edward Elgar – As Torrents in Summer
Edward Elgar – The Snow
Hans Leo Hassler – Cantate Domino
Luís Álvares Pinto – Beata Virgo
Thomas Tallis – If Ye Love Me

Chapter 22: Fermatas and Their Musical Requirements

Edward Elgar – My Love Dwelt in a Northern Land
Franz Joseph Haydn – “In the beginning” from The Creation (recitative and chorus)
Gustav Holst – I Love My Love (“Cornish Folksong”)
Felix Mendelssohn – “Cast thy burden upon the Lord” from Elijah
Antonio Vivaldi – “Suscepit Israel” from Magnificat